Newsletter, Issue 8

September, 2021

R. Coope, J. Morris, Eds.

The Trinity Historical Society (THS) would like to thank Mr. Rick Elliott, Mr. Gerald Hiscock, and Eastern Health for their cooperation and help in the relocation of Trinity Drugs from the Trinity Courthouse Building to the site of the Trinity Medical Clinic. This relocation allows a local company, the Trinity Chocolate Company, to grow while keeping the drugstore in Trinity at a site with ample parking and easy access.

We would also like to thank Ms. Pam Sullivan for her donation of a hooked rug to be sold on tickets to raise money for the restoration of the War Monument in Trinity. Tickets are available at the Lester Garland house or can be purchased from a THS Director. Payment can be by cash, cheque, credit card or e-transfer to info@trinityhistoricalsociety.com

In this edition of our Newsletter, we present the story of the 8th of the men whose names are inscribed on the Monument.

As always, the THS welcomes application for membership from anyone interested in the objectives and activities of the Society.

Harold Morris

Harold Morris, the son of William Morris and Mary Elizabeth Moore, was born at Trinity on November 30, 1891. He enlisted in the Canadian Mounted Rifles at Amherst, Nova Scotia on June 8, 1915. He was declared missing in action near Wieltje, Belgium on October 31, 1917. He was 25.

Family tree

Harold had moved to Nova Scotia as a divinity student and married Muriel Bullock, the granddaughter of Rev. William Bullock and great granddaughter of Rev. Dr. John Clinch, former Church of England rectors at Trinity. After enlisting, he landed in France in October of 1915 and fought in major battles in northern France and Belgium, including Vimy Ridge.

At the end of October 1917 his battalion was involved in an operation near Ypres and suffered the loss of 314 men. Harold was one of those men. He is remembered in Europe on the Menin Gate, Ypres, Belgium and on a memorial plaque inside St. Peter's Anglican Cathedral, Charlottetown, PEI.
